MOLI SCAVENGER HUNT

- Find the weird and wonderful around the museum and gardens: look, listen, touch and smell - get curious! There are lots of amazing Visitor Experience Assistants around MoLI who can help you if you are stuck. Look out for their big colourful name badges :)
- Use what inspires you to create something on the back of this page :)
- Once you are finished, call back to Front Desk to drop off your clipboard :)

Entrance:

- A sculpture of a dog, what's his name and what material is he made of?
- A violin covered in plaster on the ceiling.

Level 1:

- Who are some of the famous writers who went to college in the Catholic University of Ireland, now UCD?
- A shout out for Cork. What's the quote? (Before you go down the steps into Peig)
- In the Peig exhibition, pick a point in the room, sit/stand and listen - what do you hear and/or see?
- Stand under a sound shower, listen and watch the words come up on screen, and then rip off a quote you love and keep it!

Level 2:

- Find a death mask. Who is it of?
- Seek out a teenager's diary. What's their name? How do you document your life at the moment?

Level 3 & 4: Inspiration and Creativity Zone

- A safe in a fireplace? What's stored in there, do you think?
- A big blue book in an alarmed case: what's it called and why do you think it's blue?
- Pick up an earpiece and listen to Roddy Doyle, or another Irish writer, talk about why he writes.
- Write the first line of your novel/comic book/Youtube video & stick on wall!
- Find a mural painted on the wall by street artist, Klo Wi. What's the exhibition in this room about? Do you think children's stories are also 'literature'?

Garden:

- Find the famous 'graduation' tree! What piece of sports gear are made from the wood of this tree?
- Get up close to smell something in the garden. Use your phone to zoom in on your favourite part.
- A sculpture by Bob Quinn called 'Birdsong'. What's he looking at?
- A plaque for Maeve Binchy. Read it slowly to yourself.
